ADMINISTRATION

Charlotte County Board of Education

The Charlotte County Board of Education meets monthly to decide many matters in regard to the operation of schools. These prominent men and women, well versed in the problems of school students, prove their wisdom and understanding many times in solving and eliminating worries.

The board is composed of citizens holding varied positions in Charlotte County. Mr. Jackson, the chairman of the board, is a merchant in Wylliesburg, Bacon district. Mr. Maloney is a farmer in Madison district. Mr. McGhee, superintendent of schools, is also clerk of the board. Mr. Chamberlayne, president of the Bank of Phenix, represents Central district. Mr. Sublett from Midway district is engaged in farming. Mr. Lyle is a merchant in Keysville, Walton district. Last but not least is Mrs. Barksdale, a housewife from Roanoke district.

Superintendent of Charlotte County Schools

MR. GRANT O. MCGHEE

Mr. McGhee, superintendent of county schools, is a former principal of Randolph-Henry. Many of us remember him fondly as principal and feel that he still belongs to us and we are proud to share him with the other students of the county.

Principal

MR. HUGH P. NOLEN

Mr. Nolen, principal of Randolph-Henry, keeps his office door open to both students and teachers. Organizing the new courses of study, arranging schedules, communicating over the inter-com system, and settling our problems fill Mr. Nolen's school day and often require many overtime hours.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Courses offered in this department include Virginia history and government, American history and government, world history and world geography as well as civics.

Current events, outside reading, historical movies, and oral reports furnish purposeful learning activities. These courses help students to meet every day realities and to prepare for future citizenship.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Through courses in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping, the business education department prepares students to secure business positions. A large number of students choose typing as preparation for college or for personal use.

Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Nichols

Miss Odom, Miss Baughan

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics courses seek to make the students aware of the value of a good home. These students learn to cook and to plan and make many useful garments. Their study of family life calls attention to the importance of happy marriages and parenthood.

Through practical home making projects, the students learn to work independently toward the solution of personal and homemaking problems.

Departments

ENGLISH

Every time a person opens his mouth he tells the world the condition of his English grammar. Students have this fact impressed upon them as they tediously master gerunds, participles, and subordinate clauses. They utilize their learning by writing themes and term papers. One semester is devoted entirely to literature, general for the first three years, American for juniors, and English for seniors.

Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Laird, Mrs. McNair, Mrs. Holt, Mr. Pugh, Mrs. Ware

Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Paulette, Mr. Williamson

SCIENCE

"Oh no, Worms!" Oh yes, and grasshoppers and fish, too. Biology students gain knowledge through the pains of dissecting while chemistry students endure the dangerous uncertainties of experimentation.

Physics classes are not without their suspenseful moments, also, but they occur on report day, not on lab day. Students in general science enjoy a few experiences from each of the above activities.

MUSIC AND ART

From the slide of the trombone to the beat of the drum, the Randolph-Henry band is easily recognized as it marches briskly across the field. The musical group wear their bright blue uniforms as they participate in football half-time activities, parades, Homecoming, music contests, and their own concerts.

Throughout our school you can see evidence of the excellent work done in the art department. Bulletin boards and posters keep us informed about important events. The art exhibit during the second semester is one of the high spots of the year.

Miss Flowers, Mr. Young

Departments

GUIDANCE COUNSELLORS

Twelve counsellors work with the co-ordinator of guidance, the administration, the faculty, the students, and the parents to provide information, counselling, college selection, and follow up service. Each student feels free to call upon his counsellor whenever there is a need.

Miss Odom, Miss Pugh, Miss Baughan, Mrs. McGhee, Mrs. Ware, Mrs. Lawson, Mr. Green, Mr. Ramsey, Mr. Starling, Mr. Bailey, Mrs. Bowen; not in picture, Mrs. Nichols

PHYSICAL AND HEALTH EDUCATION

The physical education program provides wholesome physical and health activities for both boys and girls. It seeks to develop muscular skills through participation in both team and individual sports. Finally it endeavors to create and maintain a spirit of good sportsmanship, not only in interclass games but also in interscholastic competition. It forever strives to perpetuate a spirit of kindness, courtesy, and respect toward all students representing neighboring schools and teaches health, health habits, and driver training.

Mr. Frye, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Brewster, Mr. Jones, Mrs. Lyle

MATHEMATICS

Our math teachers stop at nothing to teach the principles of mathematics to us. In plane geometry the protractor and straight edge are evident. In solid geometry you will probably see models of figures in string and cardboard and in algebra you might even see a teacher rolling dice to explain a principle. In spite of the methods used, those planning to study math in college are grateful for Randolph-Henry's excellent math department.

Mr. Jones, Miss Pugh, Mrs. McGhee

Departments

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Latin

Latin, though sometimes erroneously considered a dead language, proved to be a most popular course at R-H. Discussions of Roman customs, the recounting of ancient myths, and making replicas of Roman articles boosted the students through difficult constructions in grammar and made Julius Caesar seem a personal friend.

Spanish

"Yo hablo Espanol?" This question is frequently heard in the vicinity of room 20. By studying the customs of the Spanish peoples, the students realized how much this country had contributed to modern civilization and culture.

Mrs. McNair, Mrs. Holt

Mr. Green, Mr. Ramsey, Mr. Bailey, Mr. Starling

Agriculture

Vocational Agriculture is a nationwide program of instruction in Agriculture and farm mechanics conducted in public schools for persons over 14 years of age who have entered upon or who are preparing to enter upon the work of the farm, or related occupations.

Library

Colorful bulletin boards and imaginative displays stimulate students to use the library more effectively.

The majority of those who use the library facilities do research, gathering materials from the periodical shelves or from reference books. Students in search of pleasure reading choose from fictional or biographical novels. In addition to reading matter, the library provides films, slides and records.

Students are introduced to new material through showcase displays, while teachers become acquainted with the resources at a faculty tea. Miss Barksdale is always on hand to answer questions, locate materials, and generally aid the students.

FIRST SEMESTER

Student Teachers

For the first time this year Randolph-Henry has participated in the student teacher training program with Longwood College. These Longwood seniors have contributed much to our program and we hope that some of them will teach at R-H in the future.

Mrs. Bunch, Miss Martin, Miss McGrath, Miss Fentress, Miss Kesling—Not Shown—Miss Wamsley, Miss Tench, Miss Webb, Miss Hogg

Cafeteria

The way to the heart of any student at R-H is certainly through his stomach. The cafeteria personnel, under the direction of Mrs. Cooper, has won our hearts through savory main dishes, crisp salads and delectable desserts.

Nurse

Mrs. Garber, our school nurse, is in constant demand. We feel free to call on her for anything from a simple aspirin to bandaging a sprained ankle. She is always pleasant and even though we may impose on her with a trivial ailment, we always feel better after a trip to the infirmary.

Miss Lipscomb, Mrs. Covington, Edith Stitl, Mrs. Cooper

Mrs. Garber

Secretary

"Ask Mrs. Daniels in the office". These directions are given each day to students who seek general information about the workings of the school. Always Mrs. Daniels answers cheerfully no matter how busy she might be with office work.

The Library Club

The Library Club is an organization of students who serve their school each day through the library. Satisfactory scholastic records and special aptitudes are prerequisites of membership in the Club. Beneficial skills are developed and knowledge acquired as the students share in library routines of receiving, reserving and checking out materials, filing cards, repairing books, assisting with booklists, bulletin boards and displays, shelving books, typing, etc. For outstanding service, individuals are awarded the school monogram.

Activities of the Club include regular meetings, exchange visits with other school library clubs, certain money raising projects for library improvement, and special programs, contests, teas and fairs in observance of Book Weeks.

Nancy Ramsey

For the second consecutive year, the 1959 Randolph-Henry Forensic Team won the District III meet, earning the right to keep the cherished trophy another year. Members of the team were: Floyd Dickinson, boy's public speaking, first place; Charlotte Gaulding, poetry, first place; Nancy Ramsey, girls' public speaking, first place; Becky Hanmer, girls' prose, second place; Edwin Baker, boy's prose, second place; and Mary Louise St. John, spelling.

In state competition, where the three first place winners represented R-H, Nancy Ramsey placed second.

One Act Play

The R-H play, "Death of the Hired Man", adapted from Robert Frost's poem, won a Superior rating at the 1958 One Act Play Festival.

In the cast were: Glenn Small, Silas; Charlotte Gaulding, Mary; Edwin Baker, Warren; and Becky Hanmer, Edna. The play was directed by Mrs. Verdella Hamilton.

COACHES AND CAPTAINS FOOTBALL 1959

Tri Captains—Millard Roach, Bobby Williamson, Head Coach—Mr. Gene Frye
Larry Fannon

Assistant Coach—Mr. Joe Brewster

Although the 1959 football season was not a success in terms of games won and lost, it has served its purpose well. Our coaches have taken a young and inexperienced squad and have molded them into a football team that will prove itself during the 1960 season.

This has been a year of rebuilding which all teams must face at some time or another. Most of this team will be back next year, and big things will be expected from them.

Junior Varsity Football

Our J. V. Team is the training camp for future varsity players. Being on the J. V. squad gives these boys game experience and knowledge of football fundamentals. Coach Jones and his squad have worked hard and these boys will be a welcome addition to the 1960 Varsity Squad.

The Junior Varsity basketball team is one of the most important parts of the sports program at Randolph-Henry. From this team comes the varsity players of tomorrow. One of the main purposes of the J.V. is not to win games but to give each player an equal chance to play in a game. Randolph-Henry is justly proud of the fine work and sportsmanship that the coach and members of this team displayed as they represented our school during the season. Junior Statesmen, we salute you!
